NEW YORE, February 7.—The investiga-ion into the cipher dispatches was begun today with Manton Marble on the stand. He said in answer to questions: I went to Florida to look after the electoral votes; I cannot say that I went under the instructions of the Democratic committee; I did not go at the specific request of any one; I had no conversation with Governor Tilden on the matter; a cult of the specific request of the specific request of the same of th ay with Manton Marble on the stand. He I called on the governor the evening I left, and simply bade him good-bye; on my way I met Randall, Blair and Fox, and, of course, canvassed the matter with them; think I got the cipher from Pelton at the Everett house, and used it subsequently; I neither sent to, nor received from, Mr. Tilden any telegrams; I addressed my dispatches to Peiton; my object in going to Florida was to take care of the electoral vote, and let me here suggest that the cipher dispatches, as published in the Tribune, are, as far as I am concerned, simply rubbi-h. Question-Give the committee a general idea of what you did in Florida? Answer— I have already published statements of what I did and did not do. The witness said he would like to explain telegram No. It was a dispatch to Petton, asking him to have the documents circulated throughout the country by the aid of the press.

Mr. Hiscock objected, saying, "The telegrams are here, and I insist they shall stand

Mr. Stenger—The intention of this committee is to get at everything, and my idea is that every telegram, every paper and every explanation should be admitted. Mr. Hiscock-Yes, you are getting on the ragged edge and fear you will fall over.

Although the were a great many deserving persons, l thought congress had gone too far. He be lieved that the bill granting arrearage pen-sions would take fifty millions dollar from the treasury. The commissioner on pensions had said that twenty per cent. of the pensions were fraudulently paid.

Mr. Beck said that the commissioner on pensions told the committee on appropriaions that twenty per cent. of all the pensions now paid were fraudulent. He inquired if the commissioner on pensions was aware of trat fact, and if any steps had been taken to remedy the evil. Senator Ingalls, chairman of the commi tee on pensions, replied that the committee had been so informed, but congress had not sustained the committee in the measures it had brought forward to prevent wrongs. The pension bureau had been making efforts year after year to detect fraudulent cases, and last year, through the efforts of the bureau, over five hundred thousand dollars had been saved.

Senator Cockrell entered a motion to reconsider on the bill in regard to prize money to fleet-officers, which had passed this morning. He said it would take four or five hundred thousand dollars from the treasury of the United States. Senator Ferry submitted an amendment to to the postoffice appropriation bill, which has recently passed the house, fixing the pay of

Ask Any Physician if Benson's capcine porous plaster is not the best plaster in the world. That this article possesses the most remarkable pain relieving and strengthening qualities is no secret among physicians or the public at large. It has so wide a reputation that it may now be found in nearly every drug store in the United States and in many parts of Europe. It is a great improvement on the ordinary porous plaster; acts quicker, and is more powerful, scothing and efficacious, owing to the new combination of vegetable ingredients employed in its composition.
